Plans for over 1,000 homes are approved

A DEVELOPMENT that will bring more than 1,000 new homes to Haverhill has been granted full planning permission.

The North West Haverhill development will include a new primary school, a "local centre" involving shops and places to eat as well as 1,150 new dwellings.

It will also have open spaces, 30 per cent affordable housing and a contribution towards healthcare provision.

The 48-hectare site will be bounded on one side by Wratting Road and Ann Sucklings Road.

On the other side, it will be accessible via Howe Road and Hales Barn Road.

It will be situated between the town and the Norney Plantation and the Ann Sucklings Way Wildlife Site.

The proposal was granted outline planning permission in June last year, and full permission was granted this week.

John Griffiths, leader of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, which granted the planning permission, said: "This is both a very significant achievement and an excellent development for Haverhill, and follows several years of hard work and negotiations.

"I would like to congratulate and thank everyone involved."

David Henry, head of Savills Planning in Cambridge who are consultants for the North West Haverhill project, said: "This is a major vote of confidence in Haverhill, and a big step forward in realising the dream of delivering new homes in the area, as well as the sought after North West bypass."

"The various landowners involved are now actively seeking a developer to help turn the dream into reality."

However, the development has caused controversy, as some local councillors fear it will be built without proper infrastructure to support it.

A relief road has been planned for the site, to avoid congestion on Wratting Road, but it will be constructed later than the rest of the site.

County and town councillor Tony Brown said: "I am not that happy about it. They haven't got the infrastructure."

"I object because there is a lag from the moment they start construction to the construction of the bypass."

"That bypass is essential to the North West development."

"I do see that affordable housing is part of the project, but I don't actually see what other benefits it's bringing to the town."

"It's back to the same old Haverhill thing of a lot more houses and no infrastructure."

"I can't see what benefit it's going to bring to the site other than adding to the congested roads."

There are plans to incorporate public transport, footpaths and cycle paths into the site.

Call the cops – The Sweeney are back

YOU'RE NICKED: John Croft in a scene from the new Sweeney film; right, John Thaw and Dennis Waterman in the original TV show

WATCH out Guv! There's a new Jack Regan in town – a lifelong fan of The Sweeney.

Devotees of the 1970s British television cop show were transported back to a time of kipper ties, screeching cars and punch-ups on Saturday, with the screening of a new short film at the Haverhill Arts Centre.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council helped to organise a display of 70s cars down Haverhill High Street, and the retro atmosphere extended inside the arts centre.

"Going into the bar was a bit like going into a pub in the 70s," said Nick Keeble, arts and leisure manager at the arts centre. "It was a great atmosphere."

The short film, The Flying Squad Thieves and Weirdos was two years in the making for a group of people from the television programme. They wrote and filmed the 29-minute tribute film on location in London.

One of the members, John Croft, from Hilton, Cambridgeshire, landed the lead role as Detective Inspector John 'Jack' Regan, originally played by the late John Thaw.

FREYA LENG

The 51-year-old postman has always been a big fan of the show, with his rescued pet Staffordshire bull terrier even named after the main character.

"We just chatted and thought it would be good to do a small tribute to the programme we're all fans of," he said. "I've grown up with the programme. It was shown at 9pm and I was 11. I thought it was the most exciting programme I'd ever seen. It was a real ground-breaking programme for the time and it blew me away. That feeling has never left me."

The father-of-three was diagnosed with sarcoma in his thigh in December 2013, half-way through filming.

He is still recovering after four operations followed by extensive radio-therapy in London.

But he said the filming helped him get through it.

"It was good, something to focus on and it kept my mind off things," he said. "It was really like a small lump in my leg which was a little bit painful. I just thought I had knocked myself as my job is quite physical and I run twice a week."

"Doing the filming helped me focus on getting away from the trauma of having cancer."

Produced by Tin Hat Productions, the film has attracted interest from the British Film Institute in London.

"It's a typical Sweeney plot," said John. "A team of blaggers want to rob a post office. There's a car chase and a punch-up at the end. The film was brilliant fun to make. It was a dream come true to play someone who was my TV hero all those years ago."

"It was quite surreal doing it but so enjoyable."

"I would like to do it again. I've got the bug for it."

Borough makes list of top places to live in the UK

THE borough of St Edmundsbury has made it onto a list of the top places for rural quality of life in the country.

St Edmundsbury was number 32 on the list, published by Halifax.

A council spokesman said: "We are pleased that St Edmundsbury has been recognised as one of the top 50 places to live in the UK.

"We continue to focus on economic growth, housing, and working with our families and communities to ensure that, not just St Edmundsbury, but West Suffolk as a whole, continues to remain an attractive place to live."

Other local areas on the list include Uttlesford and South Cambridgeshire.

Church roof to get £75k repairs thanks to grant

ST Mary's Church in Great Wrattling will receive a government grant of £75,000 to go towards repairing the church roof.

The church is one of 18 across Suffolk to benefit from the £55 million national Listed Places of Worship Roof Repair Fund.

Successful churches were announced last Wednesday. Parliamentary candidate for West Suffolk, Matthew Hancock said: "Churches are unique and treasured buildings in our local communities so it is only right that we do all we can to support them."

"I am delighted that 18 different churches across Suffolk will now benefit from the roof repair fund, from Great Wrattling to Euston."

Volunteers needed to befriend

A BEFRIENDING service is looking for more volunteers – and they'll be holding a special event next week to raise awareness.

Amanda Larcombe, befriending co-ordinator at the Voluntary Network Service, will be at the foyer of Haverhill's Tesco from 9.30am to 3pm on Saturday, April 11 to tell people about the services her organisation provides.

They match up volunteer befrienders with isolated elderly people with similar interests and experiences. The volunteers then regularly visit the elderly people to chat.

"Talking is the most effective way of connecting with the outside world," said Ms Larcombe.

The service now have more than 100 clients and about 85 volunteers.

Ms Larcombe is hoping the event at Tesco's will encourage people to sign up as volunteers, but also encourage referrals for isolated older people.

For more information, visit their website at thevoluntarynetwork.org

Ahoy matey! Pirate activities at primary school

SHIVER me timbers! Pupils at Westfield Primary Academy in Haverhill have been having a pirate-themed afternoon.

Last Thursday, Year Three pupils learned about famous pirates, created How to be a Pirate manuals, and made hard tack biscuits, which pirates would have eaten aboard ship.

They also made posters and flags, and learned about the world's oceans.

But the biggest challenge for the pupils was creating and bringing in 3-D treasure islands and maps and keys to go with them.

There was a wide range of islands, including a Lego island, an island with a Loch Ness monster patrolling the seas around it, and an island made entirely out of cake, complete with icing and chocolate orange fingers.

On the same day, the school also organised an afternoon of Easter activities.

Pupils from across the school years spent the afternoon taking part in arts and crafts activities, making Easter cards, bonnets and gardens.

They also watched a film about the Easter story, completed an Easter trail and learned about French traditions at Easter from the school's French co-ordinator

Hustings for MP hopefuls

HUSTINGS are being held to help Haverhill residents decide who to vote for in the upcoming general election.

The event has been organised by St Mary's Church in Haverhill, and will be held there at 7.30pm on Friday, April 17.

Candidates for West Suffolk confirmed to speak so far are: Conservative Matthew Hancock, Labour's Michael Jeffreys, UKIP's Julian Flood, Liberal Democrat Elfreda Tealby-Watson and the Greens' Niall Pettitt.

Rev Canon Graham Owen, assistant priest at St Mary's said: "As Christians we want to hear how the different candidates are going to offer us their visions of the kind of society and culture we wish to see."

"It's also really important that a wide range of views are represented in our audience, so we hope as many people, whether Christian or not, will join us for this important event in what promises to be one of the most unpredictable elections in decades."

Bus-rail link 'is council priority'

A BUS link to nearby rail services has been named as a priority for Haverhill in the next 20 years.

The plan set out in Suffolk County Council's Rail Prospectus, published last week, falls short of reopening the railway line which some residents have been campaigning for.

The document proposes a possible solution to the lack of public transport in Haverhill in the form of a bus-rail link.

This would be a reliable express bus linking the town to a nearby rail station.

The timings of the buses would link up with those of the trains, meaning no long waits, and train tickets would be available on the buses.

There would also be real-time information boards about when the buses are arriving.

HANNAH MIRSKY

The document suggests that a link between Haverhill and Great Chesterford Rail Station could improve links between the town and Cambridge and London.

However, the document states this would be a commercial venture by the rail companies, not run by the council.

It also states, on the subject of linking Haverhill to the rail network: "Suffolk County Council is mindful that a robust business case must be presented to reinstate rail links between Haverhill and Cambridge."

"The scheme to reinstate the line remains a long-term objective."

Malcolm Hill, chairman of the Cambridge to Colchester Rail Project, said: "I am sure a bus would be helpful, but one of the things that the people in Haverhill need is to get on a train and go anywhere in the country."

"Haverhill is one of the largest towns to have no railway at all. It's quite a deprivation."

Town and county councillor Tony Brown said: "I definitely think it would be a positive move. We would welcome any improvements."

"The only thing that really concerns me is that during rush hour a rail bus would get caught in the same traffic as everyone else."

County one-year cancer survival rates best in East of England

WEST Suffolk has the best one-year cancer survival rates in the country, according to new figures released by the Office for National Statistics.

The survival rate for the NHS West Suffolk Clinical Commissioning Group area, which includes Haverhill, is 72 per cent.

That is higher than any other area in the East of England, and than the national average of 69 per cent.

Councillor Alan Murray, chairman of Suffolk's Health and Wellbeing Board said: "This is extremely good news for west Suffolk and is indicative of the collective efforts of the clinical commissioning group and its partners to strive for the best possible patient care."

Joke-teller breaks world record

THE world's fastest joke-teller, Clive Greenaway, broke his own world record for telling fast jokes at a fundraising dinner dance at Hall Barn, Great Thurlow.

The event, on Saturday, March 21, was raising money for the Haverhill Community Wellbeing Fund which funds medical equipment to be used in and around Haverhill.

It was sponsored by comedy radio station Radio Ha-Ha, which is based in the town.

Beauty night raises school funds

A PAMPER evening held at St Felix Primary Academy has raised £120 for the school's home-school association.

The night, on Thursday, March 19, offered luxurious treatments such as massage, reflexology, brow shaping and facials.

Massage therapist Yvonne Wilde, who organised the evening, said: "It was really good. The school is happy and the headteacher is really happy."

Singer through to competition final

A YOUNG musician is set to perform his songs to moguls from the world's biggest record labels.

Dale Bennett, 22, of Calford Drive, Haverhill, will compete in the national finals of the Future Music Songwriting competition in front of representatives from record companies Sony Music Entertainment, Warner Music Group and Universal Music.

The competition will be hosted at Dingwalls in Camden on June 21.

Dale has already made it through the regional final of the competition, which took place at the Marconi social club in Chelmsford on February 15.

He was placed first out of the 12 songwriters to compete, meaning he automatically qualified for a place in the grand final.

Dale said: "Going straight through was awesome. The judges were all from the industry as well.

"I've never been so nervous. I was actually sick afterwards."

"Normally at my gigs it's easy, but that was emotional."

He played the piano and sang his song Stay Away, an acoustic tune about the end of a relationship.

The winner of the competition will get funding to have their song professionally recorded with a top producer.

"It's a really really big opportunity, and I'm really excited," he said. "I'm so so pleased."

Inquest into house fire death opens

AN inquest into the death of a woman who was killed in a house fire has been opened by a coroner.

Bridget Burgess, 84, was found dead at her home in Nethergate Street, Clare, on February 17 this year.

Fire engines were called at 7.50am to extinguish the blaze at the two-storey house, and remained there throughout the day.

Ms Burgess's body was found inside the house, and it is not thought that anyone else was in the building at the time of the fire.

The body was identified using the serial number on her Ms Burgess's hip replacement during a post-mortem examination by Dr Love at the West Suffolk Hospital.

According to the pathologist, the cause of her death was smoke inhalation and burning.

An investigation by Suffolk Fire and Rescue and Suffolk Police jointly concluded that the fire at Ms Burgess's home in Nethergate Street was started accidentally.

A neighbour said at the time of the fire that Ms Burgess lived in the house alone, following the death of her husband.

The inquest has been adjourned for further investigation.

POPULAR: Gamer and artist Paige Morris, who has over 20,000 online fans

Web artist Paige wins competition

THIS time last year, Paige Morris was just a normal Haverhill resident – but in less than 12 months she's built up an international fanbase that's as big as the town itself.

Paige, 21, runs a channel on the website Twitch, where she uploads clips about video-gaming and sped-up recordings of herself drawing.

This unusual combination has earned her 22,800 followers on Twitch since she set up her channel in May 2014 and around 1,900 subscribers to her Youtube channel.

She says the number of followers she has is "growing quite quickly".

Last Friday, Paige won an international drawing contest run by gaming community Machinima.

Machinima asked its followers to draw a scene from the video game Halo, and Paige decided to stream a video of herself completing the drawing.

HANNAH MIRSKY

"I was about a third of the way through the picture when they announced that I'd won the competition," said Paige. "I was so excited. It was absolutely awesome."

Machinima tweeted that they chose her drawing as the winner "for sheer uniqueness and awesomeness". They also tweeted out her channel to their 1.2 million followers.

Paige won a year's free access to the subscription service Xbox Live Gold, a Halo game, and a t-shirt and poster.

Paige, who attended Samuel Ward Academy in Haverhill, has been interested in art for a long time, but only recently combined it with her interest in gaming.

"I used to do portrait pictures all the time. I'm not bad at drawing," she said. "The school always tried to help me get more recognition for my artwork."

However, it's only since setting up her YouTube and Twitch accounts that she's received recognition from thousands of fans across the world.

Her channel is currently partnered with Machinima, and she says that since she won the competition they have been helping promote her work.

"They're definitely putting a lot more effort into helping promote my work now," said Paige. "They're trying to pay a bit more attention to the people who are on Twitch."

She added: "It's really nice to have people see my work and see what I can do."

"It's definitely something I'm going to keep on doing."

Paige's Twitch account can be accessed at www.twitch.tv/onerandomdolly, and her YouTube videos can be accessed at www.youtube.com/user/OneRandomDolly.

Village's post office set for move to shop

THE post office in Kedington is moving to a new location and being refurbished.

The current post office, at 4 The Parade in Kedington, will close its doors at 1pm on Wednesday, April 29.

The new post office at Nisa Stores, 17 Silver Street in the village will open at 1pm on Thursday, April 30.

If you need to use a post office before it re-opens, it is suggested you use the branch in Haverhill High Street.

The new post office will have a combination counter, where the post office counter sits next to the shop's till.

It will be open during the shop's opening hours, from 7am to 8pm Monday to Saturday, and 8am to 5pm on Sunday.

This will be an extra 49 hours opening time each week, and marks an end to lunchtime closures.

Quicker access to joint disease care

PATIENTS with joint disease and rheumatology problems will have quicker access to care thanks to an increase in the number of clinics held in Haverhill.

West Suffolk Hospital launched Haverhill's rheumatology clinics in September 2012, but they are now increasing the number of clinics from one to four a month.

They will be held on the first and third Wednesday of every month, and staffed by a consultant rheumatologist and specialist nurse.

The clinics cater to all types of inflammatory and non-inflammatory rheumatic disorders, including rheumatoid arthritis, psoriatic arthritis, polymyalgia rheumatica and osteoporosis.

They accept referrals from local GPs and new patients can expect to wait just two weeks for an appointment.

Newcomers will need school and GP surgery

SIRS I read with interest the news regarding the delay of work on the research park.

Having spent nearly 40 years working in a research environment I am pleased that the opportunity for local employment is being made. However I cannot see any provision for healthcare or education.

Does this mean that the waiting time to see the doctor that you are registered with will increase from up to a month to who knows when?

Also, how will the education system cope with the new blood coming to the development?

An easy way to help our hedgehog friends

ALONG with other attendees at the March meeting of Suffolk Wildlife Trust's Haverhill group, I enjoyed a delightful and informative talk by Simone Bullion in connection with the trust's hedgehog survey.

As hedgehog numbers are understood to have declined dramatically in recent years, all recorded hedgehog sightings (including those which have been sadly killed whilst crossing roads) are welcomed by the SWT and are easily reported online. For information, please see www.suffolkwildlifetrust.org/hedgehogs

Apparently, hedgehogs cover surprisingly large areas foraging for food at night, but in urban areas, it seems our efficient garden fences are a serious barrier to their successful searching. One solution is to incorporate a hollow concrete block into a gap in the gravel board of the fence as shown in the photo, right. If wished, the block can be concealed out of sight behind plants or some other garden feature.

Please may I encourage other readers to do the same and perhaps those slugs and snail garden pests will be kept in check more by our hungry local hedgehogs.

STUDENTS raised £76 for charity last Thursday by selling doughnuts at a business event.

The second year BTEC Level 2 business studies students from Cambridge Regional College donned special hats and sold Krispy Kreme doughnuts at a talk run by listings website TheBestOf Haverhill at the Day's Inn Hotel.

They fundraised for TheBestOf Haverhill's chosen charity of the year, REACH Community Projects, which aims to tackle poverty and raise aspirations in the area.

The talk at the event was given by communications coach Jon Torrens about presentation skills and overcoming the fear of public speaking. He focused on preparing for presentations and adapting to the situation.

Donations help new lunch club

A LUNCH club for older people is starting in Haverhill this month – and it's being supported by local business.

The club, dubbed Soup-a-Lunch, will take place at Leiston Community Centre in Leiston Road, and will offer soup, a roll, and a dessert for just £3.

The first lunch will take place at noon on April 14, and from then on the events will be held monthly.

The lunch has been supported by borough councillor Paul McManus, who has donated a grant of £250 towards it.

Hughes Electrical, based in Haverhill High Street, have donated two microwaves and two kettles to the project, and Tesco have also made donations.

The new initiative is being backed by Age UK, and run by Joan Key, who already runs a weekly coffee morning at the Leiston Centre.

Older people have to book if they want to attend the lunch. They can do so by calling 01440 703 216.

Councillors say car sale kiosk is 'inappropriate'

HANNAH MIRSKY

THE town council has branded a car sales kiosk in a car park in Haverhill as an "inappropriate" use of the space.

The councillors were discussing a planning application which has been put forward for the kiosk – even though it is already up and running.

The pod, in the car park outside Haverhill's B&Q in Park Road, is run by car sales company We Buy Any Car Ltd.

Their customers can ring up for a valuation and then drive to the car park and drop off the vehicle they are selling.

The sold cars are picked up by the company at the beginning and end of each day.

The town council refused two applications from We Buy Any Car, one for the kiosk and one for advertising in the same car park.

CRITICISED: The car sales kiosk in the car park outside B&Q

Email us at editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk or visit haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Mayor of Haverhill Roger Andre said: "This is an entirely inappropriate place for the business. We already know that the car park gets very full at certain times. There is no place for a car sales business on this estate."

Cllr Betty McLatchy added: "I have grave doubts about that kind of company coming into town."

Member of the public John Burns pointed out that We Buy Any Car were already running a business in the car park.

"They've been there about three or four months," he said.

"Presumably it's a retrospective application."

The car park is not owned by B&Q, but run by an independent landlord.

A final decision will be made by the district council.

GOING OUT: Children and staff from Stepping Stones Pre-School on their day out

End of term day out for pre-school pupils

THE children who go to Stepping Stones Pre-School, based at Coupals Primary School, were treated to an end-of-term day out last week.

On Friday, March 27, staff took the children by public transport to Kid City, the soft play area in the Abbeycroft Leisure Centre, where they played and had lunch. Elaine McManus of Stepping Stones said: "The kids are a credit to all the parents of Stepping Stones."

The pre-school has now closed for the Easter Holidays and will re-open for the summer term on Tuesday, April 14.

Mum's sensory room campaign

A MUM is launching a campaign to raise money for a sensory room at her son's school.

Christian Farrant's 12-year-old son Joshua Farrant-Clarke attends Churchill Special Free School for children with speech and language difficulties.

Mrs Farrant is trying to raise money for a sensory room at the school to help the pupils de-stress.

"Supplying the pupils with a sensory room means they have somewhere to stimulate them and keep them calm," she said.

"A lot of them have sensory issues and sensory rooms have been proven to help. But it comes at a cost of £20,000."

HANNAH MIRSKY

To start raising some of this money, Mrs Farrant is organising a fundraising night on Saturday, April 11.

The night will start at 6.30pm and take place at Simmo's Playzone in Boundary Road.

It will include a disco, a snack bar, a licensed bar, and a quiz, which costs £10 per team to enter, with prize money available.

There will also be a raffle, for which Mrs Farrant's son Josh, who has autism spectrum disorder, is collecting prizes.

Mrs Farrant said: "Josh is really keen to give something back to the school as he was in mainstream education initially, until he was 11 years old and repeatedly suspended for extreme behaviour.

"Since being at Churchill he has learned so many skills, he is now a different child."

"He sits in lessons, he participates, he comes up with fab ideas."

Josh has been attending the school since it opened in September 2013.

To get in touch with Josh about a raffle prize, or to find out more about the event, you can email Mrs Farrant clpf@icloud.com.

To donate towards the sensory room, visit www.gofundme.com/churchillsensory.

Optician backs cancer charity campaign

HAVERHILL optician Wardale Williams is backing a campaign to raise awareness of the importance of regular eye tests and raise money for children's cancer charity CLIC Sargent.

The Keira Campaign is named after 17-year-old Keira Dixon, who received life-saving treatment for a brain tumour after an optometrist spotted abnormalities during an eye test.

The optician will be running fundraising events over the next six months, and anyone who wants to donate to the cause can go into the shop in Camps Road to do so.

Practice manager Emma Mobbs said: "Life-threatening conditions can be spotted during eye examinations."

Watchdog ends probe into hospital

AN investigation into the finances of the West Suffolk NHS Trust has been closed after the hospital demonstrated improvements.

The trust started the year forecasting a £8 million deficit at the end of the financial year, which has been reduced to £5.5 million.

The investigation was launched by national watchdog Monitor last July to ensure the trust would stay sustainable during a financial squeeze.

It has now been closed because the hospital made improvements such as securing funding for an electronic system to register patients and developing efficient ways of working. It has also developed a financial plan.

Prof Dr Stephen Dunn, chief executive, said: "We are pleased that we have demonstrated improvements to Monitor and given them the necessary assurances to allow them to close their investigation."

"Increasing levels of emergency activity are still putting our finances under pressure. However, we are continuing to work with our partners across the NHS to find ways to control this growth and ensure patients who are fit for discharge can return home more quickly."

Blueprint for town starts to take shape

HANNAH MIRSKY

RESIDENTS visited Haverhill Arts Centre to learn more about a project to shape the way the town develops over the next 15 years.

They were attending a drop-in session with David Lock Associates, independent planning experts who are creating the town centre masterplan for Haverhill, which will influence how the town looks in 2031.

The session coincides with the first phase of consultation on the masterplan, which began on March 9 and goes on until April 17.

Representatives from David Lock were at the arts centre from 10am to 6pm on Thursday, explaining how the consultation will work, the research they have done, and how public views will shape the draft masterplan.

The creation of the masterplan is being organised by community partnership ONE Haverhill.

Sarah Howard, chair of ONE Haverhill, also attended the drop-in session.

She said: "I am really pleased to say that we had a steady flow of people, and they were very positive as well."

"There was some scepticism from some people because they did not believe that their input would be used, but I want to reassure people that it will be."

INFORMATIVE: Residents and planning experts at the drop-in session

During this phase of the consultation, residents are being asked for their opinions on various issues and options that need to be considered to create a draft plan.

Questions include 'what can be done to make the town centre more attractive?'

During phase two of the consultation in June and July, residents will be able to give their views on the draft.

The masterplan will eventually become part of the Vision 2031 document, a blueprint for how Haverhill will look in 2031.

The consultants also had a stall on the market from 9am to 3pm on Friday and Saturday, and an information point in Sainsbury's foyer on Tuesday.

Next Wednesday, April 8, another event will be held during Wednesdays for Women at the Leiston Centre.

For more details, visit onehaverhill.co.uk and follow the link to the consultation questionnaire or pick up a paper copy at Haverhill Library, Haverhill House or Haverhill Arts Centre.

Edmunds at night wearing pyjamas, bunny ears and comfortable footwear.

The walk, which can be either 6 or 11.2 miles, will take place on Saturday, September 12.

Bikers urged to be on the alert

THE police are backing a national campaign to encourage motorcyclists to take care on the roads.

Suffolk Police are supporting the campaign, run by the Association of Chief Police Officers, which encourages people riding motorcycles to drive defensively.

The campaign began on Monday, and ends next Tuesday, April 7.

The police are carrying out additional patrols and high-lighting safety advice and training throughout the period.

Since January 2014, eight motorcyclists have been killed on Suffolk's roads, and a further 65 motorcyclists have been seriously injured in that time.

One way to feel safer is to take part in Suffolk Police's Safe Rider workshops, which train motorcyclists to identify strengths and weaknesses.

The next Safe Rider workshops take place on April 10 and 11 at the police headquarters in Martlesham Heath, Ipswich.

Suffolk Fire and Rescue Service also organises Biker Down workshops, which use the expertise of the emergency services and first aiders to prepare motorcyclists for the worst that could happen while driving.

The next Biker Down workshop will take place on May 2 in Bury St Edmunds.

Suffolk road safety manager Mike Motteram said the county Roadsafes motorcycle group, made up of Suffolk Police, Suffolk Fire and Rescue and County Council

Road Safety officers, has devised a 2015 action plan to prevent collisions and reduce the seriousness of injuries from crashes.

He said: "Last year was the best for numbers attending Safe Rider workshops in Suffolk and Norfolk, and RoSPA (the Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents) and IAM (Institute of Advanced Motorists) reported that many riders signed up to training following attendance on the course.

"We are looking to build on this with a variety of new initiatives including supermarket events and careers nights planned to target parents of young riders, and experienced riders being encouraged to take up enhanced rider training."

Visit www.suffolk.police.uk for more.

Drivers needed to help people get around

IF you have a car and a bit of spare time, you could help a charity to provide vital services for vulnerable people.

Three Counties Transport, which serves Haverhill and the surrounding villages, is appealing for volunteer drivers for its community car scheme.

The scheme has drivers using their own vehicles to transport people who would otherwise not be able to get around.

But many of these people could be left isolated if more drivers cannot be found, as demand is increasing and drivers are retiring.

Lyn Davis, Three Counties manager, said: "The transport we provide via the community car scheme is a lifeline to many people such as the elderly, those with disabilities and others who cannot find access to other means of transport. Without the service many local people would struggle to carry out simple tasks such as go shopping, pay bills or attend medical appointments. We are currently around five drivers short making it very difficult for us to cope."

Drivers are reimbursed for expenses.

For more information, call Three Counties Transport on 01440 712028.

WEEKLY NEWS

Here in Ely business is booming and firms are looking to recruit more staff quickly.

That's why our new online jobs service will help companies recruit the best candidates for jobs 24/7 at the press of a button.

How much does it cost to place the advertisement you want online and in print?

From as little as £249 – this advertises your vacancy online for 14 days and in the Ely News as well.

For just £50 more we will also post the vacancy on the rest of our 78 websites throughout the country so that you have the pick of candidates on the move.

We can start sending companies job applications within an hour of them going to our online portal. How can we do it so quickly?

Well, jobseekers are able to send their CVs onto our jobs site 24 hours a day and we then match their aspirations with the firms who post their job vacancies online with us.

Our jobseekers are not bombarded with details that don't match their hopes. But imagine how delighted they are when we send them an email alert revealing that we've found a potential job to match their CV.

And as we only provide jobseekers on our website with relevant jobs, the quality of the candidates is far higher.

For a local company looking to recruit, this means we put you in touch with jobseekers whose potential has already been tested by our CV matching process.

Those candidates have been encouraged to come onto the our site because they trust our newspaper's position in the community.

Plus it's free. They pay nothing for challenging themselves to look for new jobs.

So everyone's a winner with our new jobs site.

Whether you are a company looking for new staff or you want a new direction for your career, why don't you get started now and prove it to yourself?

“As a local charity it is so useful for us to be able to reach the widest possible audience. It really makes a difference that we can display our logo and advert in a way that captures people's attention. Our recruitment campaign earlier this year was arranged so quickly that before we knew it we had a range of skilled applicants. The team always do their best to meet our needs and make the whole process as easy for us as possible.”

Joanne Anning

“The new look website is slick and simple to navigate, making the whole process quick and easy. We were able to personalise our package to suit our budget, and our Account Manager, Simon, has kept in regular contact every step of the way, offering helpful advice and support.”

We've seen a great reaction to our advert and we're hopeful that we'll find the right person for the job.”

Lauren Taylor

“Now in our second year with Local World we look forward to continue attracting suitable local applicants for both teaching and, in particular, non-teaching vacancies. Our Account Manager, Kayleigh, who is extremely efficient in responding to the school's needs and is always available to provide helpful advice.”

With increased coverage over the region and a revamped user-friendly job board, we are confident that this partnership will continue to support our recruitment process.”

Your Guide to Moving Home

Moving home can be a complicated business and in the hectic run up to the big day it is all too easy to forget something vital. The team offers their readers this handy checklist to help avoid any major pitfalls. We suggest you tick them off as you go....

1 4-2 WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Packing – start packing and sorting through your belongings. Now is a good time to de-clutter and pack items rarely used. Make sure you have plenty of sturdy boxes, bubble wrap and sticky tape.
- ☐ Removal companies – get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Insurance – check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Utilities – make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move. Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Telecommunications – Notify your telephone and broadband provider and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone and broadband facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Post – Look into re-directing your post for a few months to make sure you receive all relevant correspondence.
- ☐ Children – Look into the possibility of your children, especially young children, staying with family or friends on the day of the move.
- ☐ Pets – Make arrangements for any pets to be booked into a cattery or kennels if required. Having your pets microchipped is a good idea and if already microchipped, have the address changed to your new one. Your vet can advise on this.

Change of address – tell companies and organisations that you are moving!

Notify:

- ☐ Employer
- ☐ Inland revenue
- ☐ Local council
- ☐ Banks or Building Societies
- ☐ Credit companies, store cards & other accounts
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and water boards
- ☐ Insurance companies
- ☐ Land / mobile phones
- ☐ Internet and cable / satellite TV providers
- ☐ Doctor, Dentist and Opticians
- ☐ DVLA
- ☐ Veterinary surgery
- ☐ TV Licensing

3 1 WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Delivery address – change delivery address of your Cambridge News, milk, groceries and fuel to your new address as appropriate.
- ☐ Laundry – do any last minute laundry that you can – have you arranged for a plumber to disconnect your washing machine correctly?

- ☐ Kitchen cupboards – go through your kitchen cupboards and throw out anything not in date. Also check that all jars and bottles are correctly sealed before packing.

- ☐ Fridges / Freezers – empty and clean out in preparation for moving. If you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

- ☐ Valuables / documents – put these in safe place for moving day

4 2-1 DAYS TO GO:

- ☐ Packing – pack a bag for overnight essentials and toiletries and finish all remaining packing into boxes. Remember to label which room each box is destined for.

- ☐ Snack box – pack a box for the kitchen to include essentials like tea, coffee and sugar, as well as the kettle and mugs! Also include other snacks as necessary.

- ☐ Dismantle and disconnect – take down curtains, fixtures and fittings and disconnect white goods ready for transport.

- ☐ Outdoor items – make sure that these are stacked together and ready to be moved.

- ☐ Mobile – place your mobile on charge the night before moving and ensure that all relevant people have your number.

5 ON MOVING DAY:

AT YOUR OLD ADDRESS:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Finish packing toiletries box.
- ☐ Direct removal firm personnel or friends helping you move as to what needs to be done.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler / central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Make final checks and leave key as arranged with new owners.

AT YOUR NEW HOME:

- ☐ Open up & have a look around the new house.
- ☐ Locate fuse box, gas and electric meter and stop cock for reference.
- ☐ Take readings on gas, electric and water meters as appropriate.
- ☐ Organise the direction of boxes to appropriate rooms.
- ☐ Check the van after all is unloaded.
- ☐ Make the beds up for the evening.
- ☐ Sit down and relax – unpack the other boxes the next day.

Electric car residuals boost

RESIDUAL values for electric cars are rising to levels similar to those of diesels, says a trade price guide publisher.

Glass's says that residual value (RV) forecasts are "already broadly similar" to those of diesels, citing the Tesla Model S's predicted 43 per cent RV after three years and 60,000 miles versus the almost identical value attached to the BMW 535d M Sport.

RVs have been low for electric cars because of uncertainty surrounding potentially expensive battery replacements, but as technology improves and public perception of it eases away from scepticism and towards curiosity, retained values are rising.

"The Vauxhall Ampera Electron's 27.58 per cent at 3 year 60,000 miles is not far adrift of the Insignia SRI CDTi's 34.56 per cent," the firm said in a statement, "while the BMW i3 REX at 39.11 per cent is just a few points away from the BMW 320d Sport's 43.46 per cent."

Rupert Pontin, head of valuations at Glass's, said: "Clearly, there is still a difference here between EVs and diesels but there are signs that it is closing all the time.

"Crucially, when the overall running costs of an EV are taken into account, factors such as savings on fuel mean that they may beat traditional models."

The newest kid on the electric block is the BMW X5, which has been given the BMW i8's hybrid technology.

ECO-POWER: The Seat Leon SE Ecomotive Leon most Ecomotive

WITH keen pricing and noteworthy residuals, Seat cars are renowned for being as affordable to run, as they are easy on the eye. They're not too shabby at steering clear of the pumps either, as its Leon Ecomotive has been named the most fuel-efficient car tested by the What Car? True MPG team in the last 12 months.

The fuel-sipping five-door Leon topped a list of more than 260 cars tested by the UK's biggest car-buying brand, managing an impressive 63.2mpg. Emitting an incredibly low 87g/km of CO2 and attracting a BIK tax rate for company car drivers of only 14 per cent, the SE Ecomotive 1.6 TDI 110 is the most efficient Leon ever.

The Seat Leon SE Ecomotive 1.6 TDI 110 costs from £19,925.

First plug-in SUV

from Mercedes

MERCEDES-BENZ has thoroughly revised its best-seller in the SUV segment.

The highlights of the new GLE include a more appealing front and rear and extensive measures which make new benchmarks with regard to emissions and the drive system possible.

Across the available engine range, fuel consumption and CO2 emissions are reduced by 17 per cent on average compared with the predecessor model series. For the first time in its SUV history, Mercedes-Benz offers a plug-in hybrid model, the GLE 500 e 4MATIC, which combines maximum efficiency with outstanding performance.

This multi-talent will even better the already low fuel consumption figures of the efficiency champion the GLE 250 d with the four-cylinder diesel engine, while delivering the performance of a V8 model. The advantages of the new GLE furthermore include best on-road and off-road handling, outstanding spaciousness and high levels of active and passive safety. The high-performance SUV model, the Mercedes-AMG GLE 63 S 4MATIC, celebrates world premiere at the same time.

"State-of-the-art and efficient drive technology, combined with superior ride quality and the versatility and robustness typical for SUVs – the new GLE has all the ingredients to continue the success story of our best-seller," is how Ola Källenius of Mercedes-Benz Cars characterises the newest member of the Mercedes-Benz SUV family. Outstanding safety and a high level of driving dynamics both on the road and in terrain are among the other strengths of the premium SUV. Furthermore, the GLE impresses with ground-breaking assistance systems, the nine-speed 9G-TRONIC automatic transmission and the innovative DYNAMIC SELECT dynamic handling control system, which offers extensive drive and off-road programmes already in basic specification.

Details from Mercedes-Benz of Cambridge on (01223) 401100.

Borough are denied by spot kick drama

A CONTROVERSIAL penalty proved the difference as Haverhill Borough went down 1-0 away to Great Yarmouth in the Thurlow Nunn League, First Division.

There were few good chances in the difficult conditions, although Borough keeper Charlie Turner tipped over a fierce shot from Dale Cockerill after 18 minutes and Kieran O'Neill had a shot saved after running through the Yarmouth defence.

As the half came to a close, Yarmouth stepped up their pressure and Borough skipper Lee Hurkett was required to make two important clearances.

There was little goalmouth action in the early stages of the second half until the award of the Yarmouth penalty.

As the ball was cleared away down the Borough left, Gareth Thomas and substitute Darren Cockerill appeared to get their legs tangled off the ball, and both went to ground in the penalty area.

Thomas was deemed to have fouled Darren Cockerill, who got up to slot home the resulting spot kick.

With time running out, Borough player-manager Martin Westcott shot over and Chris Thomas' header was saved.

Borough host Woodbridge Town tomorrow before facing Saffron Walden on Monday.

Meanwhile Haverhill Rovers return to action in the Premier Division at Brantham Athletic on Saturday, followed by the visit of Walsham-Le-Willows on Monday.

Little Legends duo seal points

CHARLES Burrell and AJ Swanepoel secured a 2-0 victory for Little Legends against Haverhill Rovers in Cambridgeshire Mini Soccer League 11D. Burrell got a solo effort and Swanepoel finished from Adam Gridge's pass after a goalless first half.

Scramble: Little Legends defend a corner.
